The 2018 Stanford Carr Development/
HHSAA Girls Water Polo State

Championship commences Monday, April 30, with the first-round regional matches taking place at various sites. Winners of the first-round move on to the final three days of the tournament, May 3-5, at Kamehameha School-Kapalama’s Kalani’opu’u Aquatic Center. The first-round losers will end their season.

Twelve-time defending state champion Punahou (9-0) received the top seed, boasting an unblemished 36-0 state-tournament win record under head coach Ken Smith, including 10-straight championships. They only failed to qualify for the state tournament twice in the 15-year history (2006 and 2007).

OIA champion Kahuku and third place Roosevelt are making its 15th appearances, qualifying for every state tournament since its inception in 2004, while OIA fourth place Kalaheo is making its first-ever state appearance.

ILH runner-up Kamehameha-Kapalama has the second most hardware in the field with one state title (2006) and eight runner-up finishes.

OIA sixth place Kapolei is making its 14-straight appearance.
